

McKINLEY INN

J. E. Collins, formerly employed at the Union Tool company, is convalescing at the hospital in Sawtelle from a serious illness.

Mrs. May McKinley and Mrs. Guy Bunch were visitors in Los Angeles Monday.

Donald Carpenter is making his home in Redondo Beach.

Mrs. Reynolds of Redondo Beach was a guest Sunday of her son George.

W. G. Machin spent Tuesday in Long Beach.

Carl Rettig was a guest Sunday of friends in Los Angeles.

Forrest McKinley will spend the holidays at his home here. Master McKinley is attending a military academy in Los Angeles.

Guy Bunch was a business visitor in Los Angeles Tuesday.

The Lafalot club will be entertained at luncheon and cards Saturday afternoon by Mrs. Mary McKinley.

SCHOOL NOTES

Two weeks' vacation—December 14 to January 2. Hooray!

The "hooray" is a trifle faint on the part of the faculty, as next week they have to go to Teachers' institute at the Philharmonic and Trinity auditoriums in Los Angeles.

Wednesday the music appreciation class held an open session, at which a number of mothers were present.

Section 1 of B-A had a "white elephant" party Wednesday afternoon. The drawing created heaps of merriment. Light refreshments were served.

The T. N. T. comes off the press today (Friday).

Thursday afternoon B-7 had a Christmas party, with a tree and an interesting program.

Tom Mix, in "Sky High," will be given by the seniors this afternoon (Friday).

During the third and fourth periods Friday the B-8 art classes will give an interesting program that will include talks on Rafael and the Sistine Madonna, and the symbolism of religious pictures. An hour of games will follow in the new studio.

MACCABEE NOTES

The regular meeting of Torrance review was held in Legion hall Tuesday evening. The following officers were elected for the coming year: Commander, Mae Tomkins; lieutenant commander, Anna Stadig; past commander, Mae Lowry; record keeper, Sara L. Campbell; lady-at-arms, Mary Blanchard; chaplain, Nettie Steinhilber.

A public installation will be held Tuesday, Jan. 8, at Legion hall. It is expected that Julia C. Gunn, deputy great commander, will preside as installing officer.

A social evening will be held Tuesday, Dec. 18, at the home of Mrs. Hurum Reeve. There will be a short business session. Every member is invited and urged to be present.

Mrs. Steinhilber reported a profitable and interesting day at the rally.

NOTICE TO STOCKHOLDERS

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Narbonne Ranch Water Company Number Five will be held Monday, January 7, 1924, at 7:00 o'clock P. M., at the office of Lomita, Los Angeles County, California, for the purpose of electing a board of directors and to transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

A. F. WELTON,
